If you listen carefully as back-to-school season sets in, you can probably hear the soft sound of your wallet weeping, and it's not hard to guess why. Textbook shopping is on the horizon, and unfortunately, knowledge doesn't come cheap. Luckily for you collegiettes, there are budget-friendly sites out there where you can purchase or rent textbooks. Check out our list below!

2. Campus Book Rentals

Campus Book Rentals is another textbook rental site that's good for those students who may normally shy away from renting their textbooks. Although you may worry that you have to be extra careful with your books all semester so you can return them in good condition, Campus Book Rentals encourages its renters to treat their textbooks as if they were their own, so highlight away! Just keep in mind that what you give is what you get – chances are, the books you rent will come with markings from the previous owners, too.

Special feature: Campus Book Rentals also has a unique RentBack feature: you send your books to them and they rent the books out to different students, sending you money for each rental until the book goes out of demand. Making money by getting rid of your old textbooks? Sign us up!
